

H. J. Hammond is in Kansas City this week on business.

METHODIST LADIES AID
Meets with Mrs. Dr. Chilton Wednesday afternoon October 10th. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. Buck Miller is convalescing from an attack which was thought at first to be typhoid but which fortunately proved to be a less serious form of intestinal derangement.

Mrs. W. S. Potter has received the sad news of the death of her father, Mr. Gayhardt of Puerto de Lunas, New Mexico.

Mrs. Wagner, of Golden Colo., mother of L. Wagner of this place is visiting her son and family.

Mrs. Robert Isaacs and little daughter, Martha Lucile, have just returned from a visit with relatives in Trinidad.

Bishop Pedro Pitaval, of the diocese of Santa Fe, conducted confirmation services at the Catholic church at this place, Thursday. Sixty-nine children were confirmed. The Bishop went from here to Folsom where he holds services to-day.

Mrs. F. I. Burch's mother, Mrs. Boggs, has been quite sick this week.

Wallace Carnihan has returned from an extended visit in Trinidad.

Will Pennock was in the city a few days this week en route to the F. D. W. wagon.

C. W. Young passed through on his limited Monday.

The mail route from Clayton to Kenton has been changed to go around by Lujan's ranch on the Curumpa, which makes the route 43 1/2 miles.

Commissioners court has been in session all the week with the entire board present.

We are informed that a large grading outfit has arrived at Des Moines and work will begin immediately on the eastern end of the Santa Fe Englewood and Liberal R. R., from Des Moines to Englewood.

For hot and cold drinks go to the Charlton Drug Co.

Mr. Goettlieb, the photographer, will leave Monday, for Tucumcari and Santa Rosa and will be absent from his photograph gallery here for several weeks.

John Tinsley and Earl Messenger returned Wednesday, from Des Moines, where they have been carpentering.

Ed Fox after attending the republican convention at Las Vegas, went down to Santa Fe for a few hours. Mr. Fox says the republican is in fine trim for the campaign. This may not be conclusive assurance of victory, there has been many a contestant entered in fine condition that finished in pretty hard shape.

For hot and cold drinks go to the Charlton Drug Co.

Prof. Carnes has accepted a position in the Logan schools.

Mr. Will Detamore has purchased the Frank Evans property.

For hot and cold drinks go to the Charlton Drug Co.

Death of Mrs. Matilda Lane.

On Saturday morning, September 29th, at the home of Dr. Isabel D. Lane, occurred the death of her mother Mrs. Matilda Lane. Mrs. Lane had been a sufferer from heart disease, and her death was due to this complaint.

During her last illness she was ministered to by her daughters, Dr. Lane, and Miss Bessie Lane.

The deceased was born 56 years ago in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, and has since childhood, been a member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral services, which were very simple and impressive were conducted at the home of Dr. Lane, by Mr. A. C. Thompson. The room in which the body lay was beautifully decorated with flowers—the tribute of friends.

Monday morning the body was taken to Denver, where the young ladies were joined by their sister, Dr. Fanny Lane, of Cody, Wyo., and the remains were interred in Longmont Cemetery.

Mrs. Lane had made a wide circle of friends in her five years residence in this community, and her kind interest and sympathy in all things endeared her to her friends who mourn her death.

Society Events.

Not one feature was wanting to make the reception given by Mrs. Samuel Isham North in honor of her guests, Mrs. Judson Chapin, of Tempe, Ariz., and Miss Anna Raney, of Danvers, Ill., on Friday afternoon, Sept. 28th, the most charming of the season. The handsomely appointed rooms were laden with the perfume of sweet peas and carnations which, with festoonings of graceful vines formed the decorations. The brilliant repartee and ready wit of the clever hostess and her receiving ladies made the afternoon one of great interest and animation and one long to be remembered by the guests. Miss Lucy Chapin presided at the punch bowl; Misses Cyrene Toombs and Rose Bushnell assisted in the dining room, and Miss Clara Toombs dispensed the favors.

Mrs. Toombs entertained informally for Mrs. Chapin Saturday afternoon.
